The Triangular Meet Today.

The track team participates today in the three-cornered meet with Syracuse and Colgate. While we are the outsiders we hope to make a good showing and there seems to be a fair chance of it. The test will show what the men are capable of at least. The men picked to go are Roosa, Sicard, MacDonald, Bramley, Ferris, Carroll, Thompson, Grossmeyer, Meeker, Scoon, Peck, Roseboom, McLean, McCarthy, J. G. Clark, Smith, Hull, Montgomery, Holley, Sherman, Bagg, Swetman, though for various reasons some may not be able to go.

Judging from their dual meet with Oberlin the Syracuse men have a strong team. Their strength is greatest in the dashes, hurdles, half-mile, pole vault and weights. This does not, however, denote lack of good men in other events, for their team is very well balanced. Colgate, of course, has Castleman, who looks good for three or four firsts, though he will have to hustle every minute. In the three distance runs, also, Colgate will fight for places with Syracuse, but on the field, we understand, they are rather weak. Our best chances seem to be in the dashes, quarter-mile, hurdles, broad jump and shot put.

This estimate is, of course, largely in the air, and a complete reversal of form may occur. But Syracuse is booked to win, Colgate second, and Hamilton third, by just how many points we can't say. All our chances are but fighting ones and our luck will have much to do with the outcome.

THE ATHLETIC MANAGERS need money. They want that one, two or three dollars that you subscribed two months ago. Of course the college is broke, but then, scrape up something and cash in. The general treasury is low this year, and it's hard work living from hand to mouth.

Colgate Wins First of Series.

Although the game at Hamilton last Saturday resulted in a victory for Colgate, the team played better than in any previous game this season. There were the usual number of errors in handling the ball, but errors of judgment were fewer.

Colgate won the toss and took the field. Bramley struck out. LeMunyan singled, Ferris struck out and LeMunyan came home on a passed ball, scoring the first run. Stiles struck out. Haddon hit one that looked good for three bags, but Stiles pulled it in and threw him out at third. Sherwood got to first on an error. Houseman singled and Sherwood crossed the plate. Whittaker reached first on an error and Houseman scored the second run for Colgate. Castleman hit a grounder to Clark, who threw Whittaker out at home.

Haggerson singled and got to second on a wild pitch. Clark sacrificed, Sherman was out, Runge to Houseman. Brown singled, Haven flied out to center field. Runge got to first on an error, Harris walked, Kimmick was out Haven to Brown. Haddon reached first on a fielder's choice and Runge crossed the plate. Sherwood singled and brought in Harris and Haddon. Sherwood was thrown out at second by Haven and Houseman flied out to Stiles.

Bramley walked, LeMunyan struck out, Ferris walked and Bramley got home on a passed ball. Stiles struck out, Haggerson singled, Clark got four balls but Ferris was caught in an attempt to steal home. Whittaker popped one out to Clark, Castleman flied out to Ferris, Merrill reached first on an error. Runge got a two bagger scoring Merrill, and Haven struck Harris out.

Sherman walked. Brown flied out to Merrill who threw to first and caught Sherman off the bag. Haven was out, Whittaker to Houseman, Kimmick

Hamilton Defeats Hobart 3 to 0

On Tuesday afternoon, in one of the best games ever seen on the Campus, the Varsity scored its first shut-out of the season. Hobart was the visiting team and, although they played a clever game, they were unable to tally.

The day was decidedly unfavorable for baseball. A light rain in the early part of the afternoon rendered the diamond exceedingly slippery and made fast base running impossible. The "D. T." candidates made their initial appearance and aided by frequent outbursts from the "Foolish Five" kept the audience in good humor.

Sherman pitched the first five innings of the game for Hamilton. He handled the ball and himself very much better than on former occasions, allowing only three hits and one base on balls. Haven, who succeeded him, pitched his usual game. He struck out three men and gave five hits. Both of our twirlers were effective at critical stages of the game. The outfield, as usual, was impregnable. The infield was slow at times, but their errors were of little advantage to Hobart.

Rose, our opponents' pitcher, was the best yet seen on the Campus. Though he played in hard luck, he had fourteen strike-outs to his credit and allowed only three hits, and two of these were of the scratch order. However, he lost his own game in the opening inning by a wild pitch, probably owing to the wet condition of the ball, but, nevertheless, netting Hamilton two runs. He was ably supported by the whole team, especially by Bremer, his backstop.

Hamilton scored two runs in the first. "Bram" was hit by the ball and stole second. LeMunyan flew out to Brown. Ferris hit safely and reached second on Stiles' sacrifice. Both men scored on Rose's wild pitch. In the seventh Tom Sherman hit safely and scored on Rose's bad throw to first.

The line-up was as follows:

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Y. M. C. A. is fortunate tomorrow in having the services of Mr. Edmund W. Booth, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of New York City, and Mr. George A. Warburton, general secretary of the railroad Y. M. C. A. of the Rutland branches of New York City.

In the afternoon meeting at Silliman Hall, Mr. Booth will speak on the topic, "Every Inch a Man." The speaker has a wide reputation, and to have him on the Hill is a rare opportunity. Those who have heard one of Mr. Warburton's delightful informal talks will welcome him again. He will speak on "Making Life Count." The college is urged to attend.

A mass meeting will be held in the evening at 7:30, at the Stone Church, under the College Y. M. C. A. management. Mr. Booth and Mr. Warburton will speak on "The Young Man in the City" and "The Young Man on the Railroad," respectively. This will be a union service of the churches, and a large representation from the College is desired to help out the College choir in a good, strong "Sing."

The Interscholastic Field Meet.

The Interscholastic Track and Field Meet was pulled off Saturday afternoon under conditions, weather and otherwise, that have rarely been equaled. We have a right to praise ourselves for the success of this year's Inter-academic, but it is the general management of the athletic sports that should have a large amount of praise. It had arranged to handle an exceptionally large number of contestants in a rapid and thorough manner and did so successfully.

The number of contestants was larger than in any preceding year. The performances were excellent, one record being broken, that in the one mile run. The man awarded the first prize in the pole vault cleared the bar two inches higher than the record, but as it was done on a jump-off, the performance cannot stand as a record.

The star athlete of the day was Talcott of the Lafayette High School of Buffalo. He bore off five first prizes as his share and came very near to winning the meet. Had Roosa of the same school been in condition, they might have taken the meet.

The representatives of Syracuse High School were awarded the pennant, the points scored by them numbering 33. Lafayette came next with 25.

The 100-yard dash was won in 11 seconds by Cook, of Binghamton; Nutt and Turnbull, of Walton, got second and third places. The 120-yard hurdles were won by Talcott, of Lafayette, in 18 3-5 seconds; second, Blumer, of Syracuse; third, Stansfield, of Jenner's Preparatory School, Syracuse. Simons, of Gouverneur, took the half-mile run in 2 minutes, 13 1-5 seconds; Bell, of Mt. Vernon, was second, and Wallace, of Syracuse, third. Talcott, of Lafayette, again came to the front in the 440-yard dash, winning in 57 4-5 seconds; Nutt, of Walton, was second; Monroe, of Syracuse, third. Wood swelled Syracuse's score by winning the shot-put (12 pounds), at 40 feet 5 inches; second was Edwards, of Jenner's, and third Fitzwater, of the Syracuse Classical School. The mile run was taken by Grannis, of Syracuse, in 5 minutes, 3 3-5 seconds, breaking the record of 5 minutes, 4 seconds, held by Gillette, of Syracuse. Following him was Lee, of Syracuse, and third was Haggerty, of Binghamton. Talcott, of Lafayette, got another first in the 220-yard dash. He won handily in 25 2-5 seconds. Wells, of Syracuse, was second, and Allen, of Clinton, was third. Talcott, of Lafayette, again made good in the broad jump, going 19 feet, 4 1-2 inches. Moore, of Clinton, got second place, and Spencer, of Gouverneur, came third. Robb, Gouverneur, cleared 9 feet, 8 inches in the pole vault, which broke the record held by Hewitt, of Gouverneur. Kehoe, of Syracuse, was next best, while Deforest, of Walton, and Wilson, of Holyoke, tied for third place. The two-mile run was won by Hubbard, of Syracuse, who breasted the tape in 11 minutes, 8 2-5 seconds. Second was Benjamin, of Syracuse, and third Williams, of Utica Free Academy. Dunlap, of Batavia, won the 220-yard hurdles, in 29 2-5 seconds. Blumer, of Syracuse, was good for second and Stansfield, of Jenner's, pulled third. The twelve-pound hammer throw was won by Edwards, of Jenner's, with 116 feet 1 1-2 inches. Fitzwater, of the Classical School, was second, and McNaught, of Walton, was third. In the running high jump Talcott, of Lafayette, secured his fifth first with 5 feet 1 3-4 inches. Wilson, of Holyoke, second, and Becker, of Syracuse, third.

Points by schools:—Syracuse High, 37; Lafayette, Buffalo, 25; Gouverneur, 10; Jenner's, 10; Walton, 9 1-2; Binghamton, 6; Batavia, 5; Syracuse Classical, 4; Clinton, 4; Mt. Vernon, 3; Holyoke, 2 1-2; Utica, 1; Rome, 0.

Officials:—Referee, Prof. F. H. Wood; Clerk of Course, G. H. Sicard, '06; Starter, A. M. Drummond, '06.

Our Fame Reaches Chicago.

Dr. Stryker's remarks on reading went considerably beyond the limits of Oneida county. The Chicago Record-Herald of May 7th has a half-column editorial approving the stand "Headquarters" took on the subject. While doubtless the College feels somewhat shocked to learn that a doubtful five of the Freshmen are good readers, still there is nothing like notoriety to put you on the road to fame.

—Our campus is known for its beauty far and wide. However, everything has flaws, and our Hill-top is no exception. The thing to which reference is made is that unsightly heap of stones in front of Carnegie. Nature is doing all she can to make the rest of the campus beautiful. Perhaps in course of time she might decorate this pile with mosses and vines. But that is too far in the future. Visitors admire the walks, the fountain, etc., but when they see those stones they heave a sigh. They break the spell and spoil the whole beauty of the inner quadrangle. Somehow they give a slouchy, shiftless appearance, to grounds otherwise neatly kept. Cannot something be done about it?

P. B. WILLIAMS, J. H. MORGAN.

THIS SPRING'S INTERSCHOLASTIC is past. On the whole it was probably the best we have had. The meet was not as fast as last year's, but it was closer and more exciting. There was not so large a crowd and the management did not clear so much as heretofore at the gate, but it paid expenses. The Prize Speaking was a great improvement on former years, the sub-freshmen on were a more likely looking bunch, they were better taken care of, and the mug-hunters were conspicuous by their absence.

This day is getting to be less and less a novelty, and more and more a business venture. Every year we make better business of it. This year Colgate Academy and Potsdam Normal were not invited to attend—in fact were invited not to—and this for far from any reason of spite, but because it does not pay to offer inducements to men who, in all probability, will never see the place again or greatly care to after they have their medals. Such an arrangement brings us the greatest ultimate return, even if it does not fill the medal cases of junketing athletes. Business means business and we must look out for Number One.

This year a far larger percentage of men on than in other years expressed their intention of coming here next year or the year after, to college. This fact partially proves the expediency of the Inter-Academic Day. A canvas of the visitors, informally made, justifies our former statement that our Interscholastic is the best managed, most popular and most congenial offered to prep. school men in the whole state. Nothing succeeds like success.

GLANCING OVER the requirements for the winning of a track "H," we find that no clause provides for triangular meets. The constitution states that a first in a dual meet or one point in the Intercollegiate shall entitle a man to the "H." It is unfortunate that no provision has been made for today's meet at Syracuse. It is obviously unfair to require a man to win a first in today's contest and only one point in that of Decoration Day. A movement is on foot for a special Advisory Board meeting to recommend an amendment to the Constitution on this point, so that the work of men in this particularly severe contest may be rewarded. Would not a rule requiring a first in a dual meet, two points in a triangular, and one point in the Intercollegiate, settle the question most adequately?

FROM THE MAIL CARRIERS' point of view there must be a bit of nice irony in the performance of, say the tenth, consecutive man who, with a sleek after-dinner appearance, tosses back his mail bag after halting the carrier at the foot of the Hill, puts his cigar back in his face and heads for "Ute," leaving his delayed victim to plod up the Hill, while the chapel clock slowly grumbles out the hour of seven. And the mail man thinks of eatables and drinkables yet half an hour away.

Seriously, consideration isn't half bad, especially when mutually shown. The mail carrier does not wish to wear a "grouch" from the postoffice to the hilltop. The mail is heavy enough. Just think of the Golden Rule and apply it, even half-way. Then see the improvement. If we expect the carrier to be unreasonably reasonable it's only fair that we should be inconsiderably considerate.

THE RECENT CONDUCT of some of the fellows—Sophomores it is believed, or at least, someone using the 1907 yell—in annoying some lady visitors in North College, is far from the standard we boast here. Doubtless it was but meant in fun, though that is no reason why bad manners should be condoned. There is every reason why any guests of the College should be courteously treated here on the Hill. Imagine how you would feel if the trick was played on you, or if you heard of other colleges countenancing such hoodlumism. We don't want to be a kindergarten or a Sunday school, but we would like to be decent when ladies are present.

"A HINT TO THE WISE is sufficient."

This rule does not seem to hold true here, or else there are many men on this Hill who can not be termed wise, or even intelligent. Surely the editorial in last week's LIFE was couched in terms of no ambiguity, and we believed that even the most stolid members of the Class of 1908 could not help but understand the general import of the few sentences in comment upon the bearing of the Freshmen toward upperclassmen, and duty as a whole. It would appear that our words had about as much effect on the members of the Freshman Class as water on a duck's back. Not only do they continue in the old path of indifference and general sloth in all ordinary college affairs, but on Saturday to their blase air was added a sublime disinclination to assist in any work. With the exception of three or four men who were in evidence during the meet and the special volunteers asked for from the crowds to assist in the evening at the Commons, little can be said in praise of the efforts of 1908 on Saturday. Personal appeals had but little effect on them other than to bring forth injured looks. Whenever one was pressed into service he speedily mingled in the crowd and became oblivious to toil. In the setting up of the hurdles the best service was rendered by the Seniors. There is no use denying the fact that the Class of 1908 has had a most downy couch this year. The inability of the Sophomores to cope with them, their athletic successes, and the liberality of upperclassmen have united in giving them a path of roses, so to speak. But remember, Freshmen, that the year, though on the wane, is not yet completed, while the patience of the upperclassmen has reached its limit.

THE HALL OF COMMONS was decorated the morning of the Hobart game by a poster on which some wit had inscribed a prophetic score: Hobart 2; Hamilton 10. There is nothing more worth observing than the laws of hospitality, and we submit that such mural decoration is hardly a sportsmanlike and generous greeting to visiting athletes. Fortunately the poster was discovered and removed before any Hobart man had seen it, so that no real harm was done. But, seriously, wouldn't it be well to take a brace on some of these finer points of college etiquette, if only to maintain our old and honorable name and reputation?

Interscholastic Day.

In another column of this issue, the summary of the Interscholastic Track Meet is given. But there was more to the day than just the meet. The speaking at noon in the chapel was rather better than usual from representatives of preparatory schools. It was, in some instances, very close to our own style of speaking. The first prize was taken by Mr. Robert Clark, of the Binghamton High School. He was essentially a finished speaker. Every emphasis was well placed and each movement well timed. His voice was particularly well modulated. His whole style was polished and showed both excellent training and a clear understanding of his declamation. Mr. Southwick, of Plattsburg High School, took second place. He also deserved his honor, and is a strong, interesting speaker. Every man in the contest was good. Altogether it was well worth listening to.

In the evening the management announced the winners of the events of the afternoon and Dr. Stryker made the presentation of the medals. This affair was held in Commons Hall. Soon after seven-thirty the Hall was filled. After light refreshments of ice cream and cake, the Glee and Mandolin Clubs rendered several selections.

Sicard amused the crowd with his, "You never can tell 'till you try." Then Dr. Wood introduced President Stryker and announced that he would present the awards. Dr. Stryker made a speech in which he gave his ideas as to just what Hamilton stands for in scholarship, in athletics, and in social life. He then announced that the Syracuse High School had won the meet and would receive a banner from the Athletic Association. The medals were distributed to the winners of the events. These were of gold, silver and bronze, and were very attractive. Dr. Stryker next introduced Principal Wicks, of Syracuse, who responded briefly for the school. After this the Assembly broke up with three cheers for the schools and colleges of the state, led by Dr. Stryker.

The evening was marked by its enthusiasm and spirit. School and college yells were intermingled with college songs. Everybody had a good time and Interscholastic Day had again proved itself a success.

The committee of entertainment consisted of Mann, Heacock, Benedict, Tanner, Miller, Driscoll, W. G. Miller and Brokaw.

College Notes.

—Kinney, in debate, quotes a strike as "a striking example."

—To bad we can't have that oft-asked-for mail box in Carnegie.

—The last Wednesday Chapel of this term was held on May 17th.

—Frank Barns, '02, who is studying law in New York, was on the Hill Saturday.

—Judd, Wicks and Soper, all of '04, have been spending the last few days on the Hill.

—Sherman, '06, and Sicard, '06, are now left for the finals in the tennis tournament.

—Charles A. Toll, '04, has been elected President of the Harvard Philosophical Club for next year.

—Jenks, '06, in debate: "They knowed that they ought to done it, and they done it." Not bad for Clayton.

—Prof. K. White, '08, Principal of the Boonville High School, was on the Hill last Saturday and Sunday.

—Preparations for the Freshman Frolic on K. P. night are being made. The committee promises a good dance.

—By the looks of the walk in front of the Chapel on Interscholastic Day one would think that we wanted the visitors of that day to help break up the chunks of shale. We believe in "good roads" but there is a time for all things.

—The Freshman Prize Stabbers are Anibal, Beck, Coupe, Greengard, Fitch, Judson, Moody, Perkins, Pratt and Weeks.

—The Arbor has always been a popular resting place, but not until lately has it been known as a slumbering resort.

—Coach Heffernan left the Hill this week. It is generally considered that he was the best baseball coach we have ever had.

—The Senior examination schedule is posted in the Library. Such things make the Seniors realize that the end is fast drawing near.

—Dickinson, '05, and Hoffman, '05, were absent the latter part of last week, attending the Psi Upsilon convention at Lehigh University, South Bethlehem, Penn.

—Part of the baseball team has rare control at any rate. Who could find fault with "Flicker's" perfectly put, "For goodness sake!" Even "Prex" laughed.

—Judging from the piles of subway piping which have been placed along the road leading to the Commons there is at last a ray of hope that we may sometime have electric light on the Campus.

—"Dribbling" asked Fake if he intended to take part in the events of Interscholastic Day. This shows how much some of the Faculty know about things which are doing on the Hill.

—The Freshman class has received a challenge from the Colgate Freshmen to a dual meet to be held either here or at Hamilton, some time in June. The matter will come before the class at its next meeting and will doubtless be carried through.

—The D. T. Neophytes made their debut Tuesday afternoon during the Hobart game. "Mickie" McLean, as "Rain-in-the-face," the Apache chief, was effective. "Sue" Jones made an ideal bear, and "Fat" Williams brought down the grand stand with his egg-scambling specialty.

—The Junior Debate last Wednesday furnished great fun for the spectators. On being rapped down by the chair, Lawrence gravely bows and remains in the middle of the floor, absent-mindedly applauding his own efforts. Barrows desired to report for the whole committee without even consulting the other judges, and when he was given a show, awarded the debate to the affirmative because of their fidelity to the text of Prof. Seager. Neat for "Handsome."

—Sherman, Heacock, MacDonald, Nellis, Warburton, Clark, Benedict, Roosa and Edie, spoke in the Junior Prize Stab last Wednesday.

—Purdy, on seeing a picture of J. P. Morgan in Sicard's Buffalo Express, which they are reading in the choir loft, expresses wonder that the Money King still lives in such a "blooming burg." Well, many a man prefers to be wrong to saying nothing.

—The Alpha Deltis held an informal dance at their hall Tuesday evening. Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Brandt, of Clinton, acted as patronesses. The guests of the evening were Miss Louise Comstock, of Binghamton; the Misses Garlock and Burney, of Little Falls; Miss Fray, of Albany; Miss Comstock, of Rome; Miss Ayers, of Syracuse; Miss Kennedy, Waterville; Miss Heacock, of Iliion; Miss Calder, of Utica; Miss Wellington, of Herkimer; the Misses Stryker, Washburn, Cauldwell, Williams and Quisenbury, of Clinton, and Mr. Wilhelm, of Buffalo.

struck out, Haddon followed suit and Sherwood was out, Haven to Brown.

Two strike-outs and a fly to left field put Hamilton in the field again. Houseman struck out, Whittaker singled and Bramley threw him out in his attempt to steal second. Castleman knocked a foul to Bramley.

Stiles flied out to center field, Haggerson to first base and Clark struck out. Merrill fanned, Runge reached first on an error, Harris popped up a foul which Bramley caught. Kimmick reached first on an error and Runge crossed the plate, then Haddon struck out.

Sherman struck out, Brown singled, Haven hit out for a single bag and Bramley walked, filling the bases. LeMunyan rapped one down to Houseman who threw Brown out at home, and Ferris flied out to center field.

Stiles went out Whittaker to Houseman, and the next two men struck out. Merrill was out, Haven to Brown. Runge struck out and Harris popped a fly to Haggerson.

Smith batted for Sherman and was out. Harris to Houseman, Brown singled, Haven made a three bagger bringing Brown home. Bramley got first on an error. The next two men up struck out, ending the game.

The game as a whole was encouraging. Haven pitched a good, consistent game, allowing but five hits and giving but two bases on balls. Bramley improved things in his old position behind the bat, while Brown at first did well for a first appearance. We feel obliged to state—and with justification we think—that the umpiring was far from impartial and betrayed at times even ignorance of the game. The next game of the series will be played at Clinton on June 6th, and bids fair to be a close contest.
